MURDEROUS ASSAULT UPON A COLORED MAN William Sterling, Pat. Leyden, Frank Perry and D. O'Connell, young white men, were brought before Police-Justice White yesterday morning charged with making a murderous assault upon an old colored man named William Turner. The evidence showed that on Sunday night between 9 and 10 o'clock, as Turner was coming out of the house of a friend, on Cary between Seventh and Eighth streets, he met these young men, who were in an intoxicated condition and ready for a row. They caught hold of him and struck him several times with their fists and once with a heavier weapon, probably a carpenters' a beavier weapon, probably a carpenters 1875. Per brace, which was found in O'Conneil's bands when he was arrested. Turner, as soon as he could break away from them, ran as fast as he could, but was pursued and struck by one or two of the young men. He stopped long enough in his flight to pick up a brick and throw it at Sterling, who was hit on one ankle and badly burt. Policeman Fenson, bearing Turper's cries of "Murder !" "Murwent to his assistance. He and Sergeant John T. Hall arrested all of the accused. Police-Justice White sent them on to answer before the grand jury of the Hustings Court, and they were committed to RAILROAD ACCIDENT - COLLISION OF TRAINS About half-past 11 o'clock Sunday night the Washington-bound passenger train on the Washington City, Virginia Midland, and Great Southern railroad stopped at a watertank shout thirty miles west of Gordonsville, but finding the tank out of order the engineer had to use buckets, and he was thus delayed unusually long. While he was taking in a supply of water in this way a freight train come down the track and ran into the passenger train. The Pullman palace-car, which was at the end of the train, was badly damaged, and twenty-four out of twentyeight of the passengers were more or less injured. A bridal party were among the passengers, and the bridegroom was one of those hurt. The engine was badly broken.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN P. B. ANDERSON, OF NEW YORK .-- Yesterday G. W. Allen & Co. received a telegram from Commodore N. L. McCready, president of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, announcing the death on Sunday morning, in New York, of Captain P. B. Anderson, a director of the Old Dominion Steamship Company. Captain Anderson was one of the most active officers of the company, and had warm personal friends in Richmond.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF CHESTERFIELD COUNTY .- At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield county, held at the court-house in the city of Manchester yesterday, an order was made authorizing the Commonwealth's attorney and treasurer of the county to petition the Legis-lature for a change in the 39th section of chapter 271 of the Code of 1874, which authorizes the Board of Supervisors to expose for sale all lands delinquent for the non-payment of taxes, the Board not deeming the section as it now stands sufficiently explicit to effect equitably the citizens of this county. Adjourned till to-day.

HUSTINGS COURT, YESTERDAY .- Mr. D. J. McCormick was brought up, charged with contempt of court in loudly cheering and rapping last Thursday when the jury in the case of Police-Justice White brought in a verdict of "not guilty." Mr. R. H. Allen and Edward McCarthy were examined touching the offence. Mr. McCormick confessed that in the excitement of the moment, in the ebulition of his feelings on that occasion, he, with others, might have been guilty as charged, but he represented to Judge Guigon that he meint no contempt or direspect of the court. Judge Guigon said that Mr. McCormick had been a magistrate and ought to have known better. He would not commit him to jeil, but would fine him $25. The fine was promptly paid, and Mr. McCormick was thereupon discharged from custody.

F. G. Mott, Solomon Rice, J. W. Cadby, E. J. Grachwold, and C. A. Simmons, for selling goods by sample without license, were each fived $200; which amounts were at once paid over to the clerk. Half of the whole sum, according to law, goes to those who were instrumental in bringing the accused before the courts-viz., James M. Ty-ler (two cases), Captain C. H. Epps and George W. Epps (one case), and J. W. Wilks and Louis Antelotti (one case each). The following cases are fixed for trial today: John Williams, for burglary; Lucie Green, for grand larceny; Samuel H. Coles, for borse-stealing; Paul Morono, for violating Josephine Laterzo.

Police Court, Yesterday.—The following cases were disposed of by Justice White yesterday morning: The following parties, arrested for drunkenness, were fined : Benjamin Brown, $2.50; Ben. Tabb, $1; George Carney, $1; Lee Garnett, $1; Pat. Doherty, $1; James Pleasants, $1; J. H. Robinson, $1; Gus. Taylor, $2; John Carrington, $1. William Edwards, charged with stealing fifty cents in United States currency. The case was continued until to-day. The case of Reuben Cross, charged with stealing one cow of the value of $20 from C. Gerhardt, was again continued on account of the absence of witnesses.

A RICH TREAT IN STORE. - Some of the ladies connected with the Centenary Church Fair, held week before last, have invited the "Fourth-Street Horribles" and "Catawba" to give a musical and humorous entertainment, and they have consented to do so on the 29th instant, probably at the Virginia Opera House. They have already commenced to prepare their programme, and what with burlesque opera, Japanese jug-glery, a first-class circus on the stage, the "pipeoleans," etc., an innocent and amusing entertainment may be expected.

NICHOLLS TO-NIGHT AT ASSOCIATION HALLS The programme of Nicholls's readings in this morning's paper is, perhaps, one of the most interesting ever presented to a Rich-mond audience. The public owe a great deal to the Young Men's Christian Association as season after season they are afforded an opportunity of enjoying an exhibition of some of the best talent in the United States. The hall will no doubt be well filled tonight. Mr. Nicholls comes with honors from Europe and many States of the Union. His "Burial of Moses," "My First Dissipation," and "Lord Dundreary's Letter," have been as the best angeguard when lamps are used.
